

07/10/09 - Keiser University Approved to Offer Ph.D. Programs

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL - Keiser University has received approval from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools as a Level V institution to offer the Doctor of Philosophy in Educational Leadership. The Doctor of Philosophy in Educational Leadership will be offered fully online.

Aside from the major accomplishment achieving Level V status is for a university, it has special significance for Keiser University because of the timeframe in which it happened. In 2003 Keiser University became a Level II Institution and began offering Bachelor degrees. By 2006 the University was approved to offer Master's programs and became a Level III Institution. Three short years later, Keiser University has become a Level V school and is approved to offer the Ph.D. The doctoral degree is provided online and designed for the professional with a busy schedule. Students, who have graduated from an accredited master's program, can demonstrate a combination of graduate academic performance and professional experience may apply either online at www.keiseruniversity.edu.

About Keiser University: Keiser University is Florida's leading statewide provider of career-focused, post-secondary education and is regionally accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Keiser University serves approximately 15,000 students seeking associate, bachelor's and master's degrees in over 40 high demand degree programs at its 13 campuses and through its online and Graduate School divisions. The Graduate School opened in 2006 and offers the MBA among a variety of master's degrees in education and criminal justice. Keiser University's educational reach extends globally through its international programs including the Latin Division and cooperative agreements in China and the Eastern European nation of Moldova. www.keiseruniversity.edu.