Keiser University's Kendall Campus Celebrates First Graduating Class of 2008
President of the Florida Bar Association serves as keynote speaker

Kendall, Florida—Jan. 12, 2008— Keiser University shares in the successes of another graduating class. The commencement ceremony will take place Saturday, January 12, at Signature Gardens located at 12725 SW 122 Avenue in Miami at 10:00am.

The valedictorian for this graduating class is Jose Cordero, who is receiving his Associate of Arts degree in both Business Administration and Accounting.

“This graduation marks a milestone for the Kendall campus which celebrated its 6th year in the West Kendall area,” announced Gary Markowitz, campus president. As of December 14, 2007, there have been 740 graduates from Keiser University's Kendall campus.

Mr. Frank Angones, President of the Florida State Bar Association, will serve as keynote speaker for the graduating class. A native of Havana Cuba, Mr. Angones came to the United States when he was 10 years old as part of Operation Pedro Pan. As a partner at the law firm of Angones, McClure and Garcia, he mainly focuses on tort defense and commercial litigation but is best known for his human-rights cases.
